In re : An application under Section 482 read with Section 401 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973

Snehaprova Das & Anr.

-vs-

The State of West Bengal & Anr.

A criminal proceedings in G.R.Case no. 3044 of 2010 arising out of Ghosal Police Station case no. 3230 of 2010 under Sections 448/457/380/504/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code read with Section 3 of the Scheduled Cast and Schedule Tribe (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 is under challenge in this revisional application.

The petitioners submit that the allegation made against them in the FIR is only unfounded and baseless and the complainant has lodged the FIR against them only out of grudge and ulterior motive. They have pleaded due lack of cogent and sufficient materials to proceed against them in any criminal proceeding.

Record in this revisional application shows that previously on several earlier occasions, none appeared in this case either on behalf of the petitioner or the opposite parties. The situation is same today. Therefore, the case is taken up for delivering the order.

On perusal of the materials on record, I do not find that the petitioner could make up any sustainable, cogent ground in this case to challenge the impugned order. Also that the cause of action of the petitioner appears to be infructuous due to efflux of time.

Considering the facts and circumstances, I find no merit in the petitioners' case and also no issues to have remained to be adjudicated. The revisional application being CRR 3277 of 2011 is accordingly dismissed.

Interim order and connected applications, if any, stands vacated.
