CRR 3298 of 2011

In re : An application under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973

The State of West Bengal & Anr.

In this revisional application, proceedings in connection with Jibantala Police Station Case no. 312 of 2011 dated 16th September 2011 under Section 135(1)(a) of the Electricity Act pending before the Court of Learned District and Sessions Judge, Special Court, South 24 Parganas is challenged.

The petitioner has pleaded that allegations against him under the aforesaid provision of law is only baseless and concocted and he has been misguided by the department officials to have committed such punishable offence.

Record in this revisional application shows that previously on several earlier occasions, none appeared in this case either on behalf of the petitioner or the opposite parties. The situation is same today. Therefore, the case is taken up for delivering the order.

On perusal of the materials on record, I do not find that the petitioner could make up any sustainable, cogent ground in this case to challenge the impugned order. Also that the cause of action of the petitioner appears to be infructuous due to efflux of time.

Considering the facts and circumstances, I find no merit in the petitioner's case and also no issues to have remained to be adjudicated. The revisional application being CRR 3298 of 2011 is accordingly dismissed.

Interim order and connected applications, if any, stands vacated.
