Mr. Jit Ray

...for the Petitioner

Mr. Jit Ray, learned advocate appears for the petitioner.

Record shows that no notice of this application has been served on the other side.

The petitioner by filing the present application under Article 227 of the Constitution of India have prayed for expeditious disposal of the Matrimonial Suit No. 91 of 2013, pending before the learned Judge, Family Court No. 2, Calcutta.

The learned advocate for the petitioner submits that the learned Court below has been granting unnecessary adjournments and due to which, there is a delay in disposing of the case and such delay is causing hardship to the petitioner.

Having regard to the nature of relief claimed by the petitioner, being a prayer for expeditious disposal of the Matrimonial Suit No. 91 of 2013, I do not find any need to serve notice of the present application on the opposite party and it is not likely to cause any prejudice to the interest of the opposite party. Therefore, service of notice upon the opposite party is dispensed with.

The learned Judge, Family Court No. 2, Calcutta is requested to dispose of the Matrimonial Suit No. 91 of 2013, as expeditiously as possible and in any event, within a period of six months from the date of communication of this order, without granting any adjournment to either of the parties.

Accordingly, the revisional application being C.O. 2308 of 2021 is disposed of.
