Having considered materials on record disclosing prima facie involvement of the petitioners in the murder of the victim and the prima facie role played by them therein, we are of the opinion that in view of the gravity of the offence this not a fit case to grant bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, the prayer for bail is rejected.

Trial court is directed to expedite and conclude the trial at an early date preferably within one year from the next date fixed for recording evidence without granting adjournments to either of the parties.
