C.O. 2798 of 2022

Smt. Nayanika Biswas
Vs
Sri Mritunjoy Das

Ms. Aditi Chatterjee,
Mr. Anushree Mondal,

... For the petitioner.

A direction to secure expeditious disposal of an application praying for alimony pendente lite pending since 2020, is the ultimate relief sought for in this case.

No other point is raised requiring address by this Court.

In view of the nature of the order proposed to be made in the case, no prior notice is considered to be necessary.

Service upon the opposite party is thus dispensed with.

Accordingly, learned Additional District Judge, 1st Court, Barasat in MAT Suit No. 89 of 2020 is requested to ensure expeditious disposal of application praying for alimony pendente lite registered as Misc case, providing sufficient opportunity of hearing to either of the parties to this case, but without granting unnecessary adjournment, unless it is extremely unavoidable, preferably before the end of April, 2023.

The logical conclusion of the suit may be reached thereafter after causing disposal of any interlocutory application subject to the suitability and convenience of the suit below, but without granting unnecessary adjournment, unless it is extremely unavoidable.

Petitioner is directed to make communication of this order to the learned court below as well as to the learned advocate appearing in the court below for the opposite party and the opposite party.

With this observation and direction, the revisional application stands disposed of.

Urgent photostat certified copy of the order, if applied for, be given to the parties on usual undertakings.
