JUDGMENT

(Judgment of the Court was delivered by* T.S. SIVAGNANAM, *J.)

Re: I.A. CAN 1 of 2022

1. This application has been filed to condone the delay of 84 days in filing the instant appeal.

2. We have heard Mr. Abhratosh Majumder, learned senior counsel appearing for the appellant/assessee and Mr. Vipul Kundalia, learned senior standing counsel duly assisted by Mr. Mr. Amit Sharma, learned Advocate for the respondents.

3. We are satisfied with the reasons assigned in the affidavit filed in support of the application. Accordingly, the delay in filing the instant appeal is condoned.

4. The application being I.A. CAN 1 of 2022 is allowed.

Re: M.A.T. No.1486 of 2022

5. This intra Court appeal is directed against the order dated 18th May, 2022 in W.P.A. Nos.7908 of 2022, 7909 of 2022 and 7912 of 2022 by which the learned single Bench declined to grant any interim order and directed the respondents/department to file their affidavit in opposition. The appellant being aggrieved by the same is before us by way of this appeal.

6. The short question, which falls for consideration is whether the appellant had an adequate opportunity to put forth its submissions to the show cause notice issued by the respondent under section 144 of the Income Tax Act, 1961 (for short "Act") dated 17th March, 2022. The appellants had filed its response in the first case, which is taken as the sample case on March 19, 2022 and as could be seen from the date seal of the department, the said respondent received the same on March 21, 2022. However, in the assessment order dated 30th March, 2022 for the assessment year 2017-18, the assessing officer states that the assessee never complied with the notices and show cause notice issued and therefore, he has no other alternative but to complete the assessment under section 144 as per the materials available on record.

7. According to the appellant, no such assessment could have been made because the relevant PAN namely AAACI5619Q has been cancelled by the department themselves. Apart from the same, other contentions were also raised in the reply dated March 19, 2022.

8. Mr. Majumder, learned senior counsel submitted that the assessee was not communicated with the notice issued under section 148 of the Act. If that be so, we grant liberty to the appellant to make a request before the assessing officer for serving a copy of the same together with the reasons recorded.

9. The learned senior standing counsel appearing for the respondents submitted that the contention of the assessee that the PAN has been cancelled is incorrect. In any event, we do not propose to go into those aspects as they all touch upon the merits of the matter. As we are satisfied that the appellant did not have adequate opportunity to put forth its submission and the reply to the show cause notice dated March 19, 2022 though received by the office of the respondents has not been considered, therefore on this short ground alone, we are inclined to remand the matter to the assessing officer for fresh consideration.

10. In the result, the appeal as well as the writ petition stand disposed of and the assessment order is set aside and the matter is remanded to the assessing officer for fresh consideration. The assessing officer shall take into consideration the reply filed by the assessee to the show cause notice and all other documents as it may rely upon. The assessing officer shall provide an opportunity of personal hearing to the appellant or its authorised representative through video conferencing or physical mode and pass a fresh order on merits and in accordance with law.

11. We make it clear that we have not gone into the merits of the matter and all issues are left to be agitated before the assessing officer.

12. Accordingly, the appeal and I.A. No. CAN 2 of 2022 as well as the writ petition stand disposed of/allowed.

13. No order as to costs.

14. Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be furnished to the parties expeditiously upon compliance of all legal formalities.
