In Re:- An application for anticipatory bail under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure in connection with Domkal Police Station Case No. 459 of 2022 dated 31.07.2022 under Section 120B of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 read with Sections 4/ 5 of the Explosive Substances Act.

And

In Re : Kalu Sk & Anr.

..... petitioners

Mr. Susnigdho Bhattacharya
....for the petitioners

Mr. Saibal Bapuli
....for the State

Petitioners pray for anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioners submits that, no explosive substances were recovered from the possession of the petitioners.

Learned advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the materials in the case diary.

Considering the fact that no explosive substances were recovered from the possession of the petitioner and considering the materials in the case diary, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- each, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioners shall meet the Investigating Officer once a fortnight till the conclusion of the investigation and on condition that the petitioners shall appear on every date before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioners in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
