A compliance report by the Principal Secretary, School Education Department has been filed in Court today. Copy of the same has been handed over to the learned advocates representing the respective parties in Court today.

It appears therefrom that the department has issued a notification on August 10, 2023 mentioning that the Learned Governor has been pleased to accord approval to the proposal for creation of 1403 supernumerary posts of primary school teachers and also allow filling up of 1506 posts for primary teachers including 103 existing vacancies under DPSC, South 24 Parganas.

Learned advocate representing the District Primary School Council, South 24 Parganas submits that copy of the notification is yet to reach the Council. It is submitted that the order passed by the Court will be complied within the shortest possible time.

The Principal Secretary, School Education Department is directed to take necessary consequential steps with regard to the appointment of the petitioners pursuant to the judgment passed by this Court on November 10, 2022 and notification dated August 10, 2023 and file a further compliance report on the adjourned date.

List on August 30, 2023 at 3 p.m.
