W.P.A. 19685 of 2019
Mousumi Samanta
Vs.
State of West Bengal & ors.

Ms. Arpita Saha

Affidavit of service filed in Court today be kept with the records. None appears on behalf of the respondents.

The husband of the petitioner was a Panchayat Karmee of Pole I No. Gram Panchayat, District Hooghly, who died-in-harness on 25.01.2014. The pension payment order was issued to him on 28.01.2015 and the petitioner received the arrear family pension on 03.06.2015.

The grievance of the petitioner is that interest on the delayed payment of arrear family pension has not been paid.

It is now settled law that pension and gratuity amount is to be released to the retired employee or his heirs immediately upon retirement or death of the employee and in case of delay in releasing the pension and gratuity amount, the retired employee or his legal heirs is entitled to get interest.

Similar orders have already been passed by this Court, by which legal heirs were granted interest for delayed payment of arrear family pension.

It is settled law that the right of a retired employee to get his retiral dues on the date of attaining superannuation is a valuable right which accrues in his favour on the date of attaining superannuation.

Gratuity and pension are no longer a bounty to be handed out by the State at its whim. An employee has a right to receive gratuity and pension as also interest on delayed payment of the same, upon retirement.

As such, in view of decision of Union of India Verus Tarmen Singh reported in (2008) 8 SCC 648 in spite of delay in making the application for interest on gratuity the delay was not fatal and shall not take away the claim of the petitioner in getting interest on delayed payment.

The Director of Pension, Provident Fund & Group Insurance, Government of West Bengal as also the concerned Treasury Officer are directed to pay interest @ 8% per annum on the arrear family pension amount from the date of death of the employee till the actual date of disbursement.

Such payment is to be made within three months from the date of communication of the certified copy of this order to the concerned authorities.

Needless to mention that before any disbursement is made, the disbursing authority shall satisfy himself about the genuineness of the claim and verify the signature and identity of the claimant, who is before this Court.

With the aforesaid observation and directions, the writ petition is, thus, disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties subject to compliance of all necessary formalities.
