C.O. 3000 of 2022

Pankaj Bhushan Gayen & Anr
Vs
Nimai Sardar & Ors

Mr. Dibakar Bhattacharya,
... For the petitioners.

A direction to secure expeditious disposal of a suit being Title Suit No. 57 of 2019, pending before the learned Civil Judge (Senior Division), 1st Court, Baruipur, is the ultimate relief sought for in this case.

The only contention expressed by the petitioners is against the delay caused in the disposal of the suit.

As per further submission disclosed by the petitioners, the suit is getting delayed due to non disposal of an interlocutory application.

No other point is raised requiring address by this Court.

In view of the nature of the order proposed to be made in the case, no prior notice is considered to be necessary.

Service upon the opposite parties is thus dispensed with.

Accordingly, learned Civil Judge (Senior Division), 1st Court, Baruipur in Title Suit No. 57 of 2019 is requested to ensure expeditious disposal of suit, after causing disposal of interlocutory application, providing sufficient opportunity of hearing to either of the parties to this case, but without granting unnecessary adjournment, unless it is extremely unavoidable, subject to be suitability and convenience of the Court below.

While endeavouring such exercise, the pending interlocutory application may be disposed of as expeditiously as possible, preferably before the end of April, 2023.

Petitioners are directed to make communication of this order to the learned court below as well as to the learned advocate appearing in the court below for the opposite parties and the opposite parties.

With this observation and direction, the revisional application stands disposed of.

Urgent photostat certified copy of the order, if applied for, be given to the parties on usual undertakings.
