Court No. 19
Item no.163
CP

W.P.A. No. 21972 of 2022

Purna Chandra Rao

Vs.

The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mrs. Sabita Khutia (Bhunya)

.....for the petitioner.

Sk. Musior Rahaman

....for the State.

Affidavit of service filed in Court today be kept with the records.

The petitioner was an Executive Assistant of Silampur-2 Gram Panchayat, District – Malda, who retired from service on 28.02.2014. The pension payment order was issued to him on 22.08.2014 and he received the gratuity on 01.11.2014.

The grievance of the petitioner is that interest on the delayed payment of gratuity has not been paid.

It is now settled law that pension and gratuity amount is to be released to the retired employee immediately upon retirement and in case of delay in releasing the pension and gratuity amount, the retired employee is entitled to get interest.

Similar orders have already been passed by this Court, by which retired employees were granted interest for delayed payment of gratuity and arrear pension.

It is settled law that the right of a retired employee to get his retiral dues on the date of attaining superannuation is a valuable right which accrues in his favour on the date of attaining superannuation.

Gratuity and pension are no longer a bounty to be handed out by the State at its whim. An employee has a right to receive gratuity and pension as also interest on delayed payment of the same, upon retirement.

The Director of Pension, Provident Fund & Group Insurance, Government of West Bengal as also the concerned Treasury Officer are directed to pay interest @ 8% per annum on the gratuity amount from the date of retirement till the actual date of disbursement.

Such payment is to be made within three months from the date of communication of the certified copy of this order to the concerned authorities.

Needless to mention that before any such disbursement is made, the disbursing authority shall satisfy himself about the genuineness of the claim and verify the signature and identity of the claimant who has approached this court.

With the aforesaid observation and directions, the writ petition is, thus, disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties subject to compliance of all necessary formalities.
