Petitioners seek anticipatory bail.

There are two previous police complaints.

The claim is that the petitioners are allegedly threatening the de facto complainant.

Considering the materials in the case diary and considering the gravity of the offence and considering the fact that the petitioners were enlarged on bail by the earlier two police complaints, we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on condition that the petitioner no. 1 shall meet the Investigating Officer once in a month till the conclusion of the investigation and petitioner nos. 2 and 3 will cooperate with the investigation and on further condition that the petitioners shall appear on every date before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioners in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

Prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners is allowed.

CRM (A) 4590 of 2022 is disposed of.
