... For the State

Considering the gravity of the alleged offence and the questionable role of the de-facto complainant as well as the fact that the complaint was made four years after execution of the deed, this Court is of the view that the prayer for bail may be allowed.

Accordingly, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs. 10,000/- (rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties each of like amount, one of who must be local, to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Barasat. The petitioner shall not intimidate any witness or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever. The petitioner shall also not leave the jurisdiction of the local police station without leave of the concerned officer of the said police station and shall further make himself available for investigation whenever the petitioner is called to do so.

It is made clear that if the petitioner violates any conditions as stated above, the learned Court below shall be at liberty of cancelling the bail without further reference to this Court.

CRM (SB) 254 of 2022 is allowed and disposed of in terms of the above.
