

06.12.2022
Item No.12.
Court No.6.
S. De

M.A.T. 1800 of 2022
with
I.A. No. CAN/1/2022

Md. Nasrullah & Ors.
Vs.
Kolkata Municipal Corporation & Ors.

Mr. Subhrangsu Panda,
Mr. Tirthankar Mukherjee,
Ms. Madhurima Sarkar,
Mr. Munshi Ashiq Elahi,
...for the appellants.
Mrs. Koyeli Bhattachaaryya,
Mrs. Ina Bhattacharyya,
...for the K.M.C.
Mr. Himadri Sikhar Chakraborty,
Mr. Somnath Bose,
...for the State respondent.
Mr. Debanik Banerjee,
Mr. Anish Kumar Mukherjee,
...for the respondent no.7.

Mr. Panda, learned advocate appearing for the appellants says that he has instructions not to press this appeal. However, he prays for some time for his clients to vacate the premises in question.

Although, the appellants have absolutely no right to be in possession of the premises in question any further even for a day, on humanitarian grounds, we grant fifteen days to the appellants to vacate the premises in question. The Corporation shall hold its hand for fifteen days and thereafter shall take steps in accordance with law.

The appeal being M.A.T. 1800 of 2022 is, accordingly, disposed of along with I.A. No.
CAN/1/2022.

(Apurba Sinha Ray, J.)

(Arijit Banerjee, J.)