..... petitioner

Mr. Angshuman Chakraborty

Mr. S. S. Saha

....for the petitioner

Mr. Soumik Ganguly

....for the State

The victim in her statement recorded under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Cr.P.C.) implicates the petitioner.

The medical examination report of the victim, however, does not support the claim of the victim as recorded in her 164 Cr.P.C. statement.

In such circumstances, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/-, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioner shall meet the Investigating Officer once a week till the conclusion of the investigation and on condition that the petitioner shall appear on every date before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioner in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
