Petitioners pray for anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners were falsely implicated. The first petitioner was driven out by her husband. The second petitioner is the son of the first petitioner. The third petitioner is the brother-in-law.

The injury report of the injured suggests that he was assaulted by three persons who are not the petitioners before us.

In such circumstances, we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioner nos. 2 and 3 shall report before the Investigating Officer once in a month till the conclusion of the investigation and petitioner no. 1 shall cooperate with the investigation till its completion and on further condition that the petitioners shall appear on every date before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioners in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

Prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners is allowed.
