...for the petitioners.

Ms. Zareen N. Khan

...for the State.

Petitioners pray for anticipatory bail.

Learned Advocate appearing for the petitioners submits that there are two police complaints with regard to the same incident. So far as the other police complaint is concerned, the accused therein obtained anticipatory bail.

Learned Advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the materials in the case diary including the injury reports of the persons suffering the injuries.

Apparently, four persons suffered injuries. None of the injuries were classified as grievous hurt.

Considering the gravity of the offence and the involvement of the petitioners therein as transpiring from the materials in the case diary, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a Bond of

Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on condition that the petitioners will report before the Investigating Officer once a fortnight till the conclusion of the investigation and on condition that the petitioners shall appear on every date before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioners in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

Accordingly, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners is allowed.

C.R.M. (A) 5758 of 2022 is, thus, disposed of.
