Item No.11

IN THE HIGH COURT AT CALCUTTA
Constitutional writ Jurisdiction
Appellate Side

WPA No.28224 of 2022
Md. Ahasan Ali
-vs-
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Krishna Pada Santra ...for the petitioner

Affidavit of service filed be taken on record. despite service, none represents the respondents.

The writ petitioner retired from service on superannuation as a librarian of Tarun Sangha Rural Library, Murshadabad on January 31, 2018. After his retirement, the first pension payment order was issued by the authority concerned on June 1, 2018. Thereafter, after ROPA 2019 came into force on September 16, 2020, the revised pension payment order was issued on December 2, 2021.

The petitioner's case is that though he retired on January 31, 2018, he received payment of his pensionary benefits on July 15, 2018; and while ROPA 2019 was implemented on September 16, 2020, he received the further pensionary benefits in terms of the revised pension payment order on December 21, 2021. Hence he seeks a direction upon the concerned authority to pay interest to him for the belated payment of gratuity and arrear pension.

Having heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and on consideration of the documents annexed to the writ petition, I feel that the writ petition may be disposed of by passing the following direction.

Accordingly, the concerned respondent, especially the third respondent – the Treasury Officer, Berhampore-I Murshidabad – is directed to pay interest at the rate of 6% p.a. on the delayed payment of gratuity and arrear pension in terms of the first pension payment order from February 1, 2018 and in terms of the revised pension payment order with regard to ROPA 2019 from September 16, 2020 till the date of final payment, within six weeks from the date of communication of this order.

With the aforesaid direction, WPA No.28224 of 2022 stands disposed of. No order as to costs.

All parties are to act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this court.

Certified copy of this order, if applied for, shall be made available to the parties.
