C.R.R. 3150 of 2014

Angshuman Chatterjee Vs.
The State of West Bengal & Anr.

The matter is listed today for hearing and for report from the department after service of administrative notice to the petitioner's advocate.

None appears for the petitioner.

Administrative report is placed before the Court indicating that notice has been duly served upon learned advocate for the petitioner. The report is taken on record.

The instant application under Sections 401 and 482 of the Cr.P.C. read with Section 53 of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Amendment Act, 2006 has been filed by the petitioner/father assailing an order dated 16.9.2014 passed by the Chairperson and Members, Bench of Judicial Magistrate, 1st Court, CWC, Bankura.

Perused the impugned order.

It appears that by such order, the Bench laid down certain terms and conditions for residence of Arunima Chatterjee and Srija Chatterjee, two minor daughters of the petitioner and also made some monetary provisions by directing the petitioner and the maternal grand father, Sadhan Kumar Banerjee to deposit certain sum of money in favour of the two girl children as fixed deposits. The petitioner has approached this Court for setting aside of the order.

This is a long pending matter when the petitioner has failed to appear after service of notice upon his advocate. I do not find any illegality or irregularity in the impugned order passed by the learned Principal Magistrate for the purpose of making residential and future provision for the minor girls.

The revisional application is dismissed for default.

Let a copy of this order be sent down to the Chairperson and Member, Bench of Judicial Magistrate, 1st Class, CWC, Bankura for information.

Interim order, if any, stands vacated.
