W.P.A. No. 2767 of 2022

Kamal Rana

Versus

The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mrs. Sabita Khutia (Bhunya)

...for the Petitioner.

Mr. Tapas Ballav Mandal

...for the State-respondents.

Affidavit of service filed in Court today is taken on record.

The petitioner was an Executive Assistant of Gorubathan-I Gram Panchayat, District-Kalimpong, who retired from service on 31.10.2018. The pension payment order was issued to him on 21.07.2019 and he received the arrear pension and gratuity on 18.08.2019.

The grievance of the petitioner is that interest on the delayed payment of gratuity and arrear pension has not been paid.

It is now settled law that pension and gratuity amount is to be released to the retired employee immediately upon retirement and in case of delay in releasing the pension and gratuity amount, the retired employee is entitled to get interest.

Similar orders have already been passed by this Court, by which retired employees were granted interest for delayed payment of gratuity and arrear pension.

It is settled law that the right of a retired employee to get his retiral dues on the date of attaining superannuation is a valuable right which accrues in his favour on the date of attaining superannuation.

Gratuity and pension are no longer a bounty to be handed out by the State at its whim. An employee has a right to receive gratuity and pension as also interest on delayed payment of the same, upon retirement.

The Director of Pension, Provident Fund & Group Insurance, Government of West Bengal as also the concerned Treasury Officer are directed to pay interest @ 8% per annum on the gratuity amount and arrear pension from the date of retirement till the actual date of disbursement.

Such payment is to be made within three months from the date of communication of the certified copy of this order to the concerned authorities.

Needless to mention that before any such disbursement is made, the disbursing authority shall satisfy himself about the genuineness of the claim and verify the signature and identity of the claimant who has approached this court.

With the aforesaid observation and directions, this writ application stands disposed of.

There will, however, be no order as to costs.

Urgent Photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for be given to the petitioner on priority basis.
