JUSTICE A. K. MOHAPATRA

Order No.

ORDER
14.03.2022

17. 1. The Revisional Court has remanded the matters to the Tahasildar for a fresh decision. The only apprehension expressed by the learned counsel for the Petitioner is that the Petitioner's points of views may not be considered by the Tahasildar. There is no room for such apprehension. Once the matter is remanded, all parties are obviously permitted to place all their points of views before the Tahasildar in accordance with law.
2. With the above clarification, the writ petitions are disposed of and the interim orders passed earlier by this Court, stand vacated.
