ORDER (Oral)
20.05.2022

Order No.

- 05.
- 1. This matter is taken up by virtual/physical mode.
 - 2. The twelve Petitioners are engaged in the business of weaving for the handloom industry, who had availed a loan for a sum of ₹25,000.00 from the State Bank of India, Palasudha Branch, District-Cuttack in the year 2007. They claimed that only a sum of ₹15,000.00 was paid to each of the Petitioners, while keeping the remaining ₹10,000.00 as fixed deposits in their names.
 - 3. By filing the present writ petition, they are seeking a direction to the Bank for disbursement of the matured value of the fixed deposits lying with the Bank.

4. Learned counsel for the Bank states that the necessary relief of releasing the matured value of the fixed deposits was granted to the Petitioners long time back and hence nothing survives in the present writ petition.

5. In view of the statement of learned counsel for the Bank, the writ petition is dismissed as infructuous.
