CORAM: THE CHIEF JUSTICE

Order No.

ORDER
26.08.2022

03. 1. The present appeal was filed more than twenty years ago. Defects were pointed out way back in 2002 itself which have not been removed till date. Consequently, the appeal has not even been listed once.
2. Since there was sufficient opportunity for the Appellant to remove the defects, which has not been done, the Court sees no reason to entertain the present appeal and it is dismissed as such.
