Order No.

07.

1. Mr. S. Parida, learned Senior Standing Counsel for the School and Mass Education Department informs the Court that the school in question is functioning in a properly constructed building. He refers to the second affidavit dated 1st August, 2014 itself. He states on instructions that the new school building was constructed in October, 2015 itself.

2. In that view of the matter, no further directions are called for in the writ petition. It is disposed of as such.
