ORDER

16.02.2022

Order No.

01. This matter is taken up through Hybrid arrangement (video conferencing/physical mode).

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned counsel for the State.

This is an application under section 438 Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners in connection with Parjanga P.S. Case No.500 of 2021 corresponding to G.R. Case No.489 of 2021 pending in the Court of learned J.M.F.C., Parjanga for alleged commission of offences under sections 294/324/307/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Perused the F.I.R.

Considering the submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioners that the petitioners and the informant are related to each other and there was previous dispute between the parties, for which the case has been foisted and there are no such materials to attract the ingredients of offence under section 307 of the Indian Penal Code and after going through the injury reports of the informant as well as her husband filed by the learned counsel for the State with a memo, which is taken on record which indicates that the injuries are simple in nature and on hearing the learned counsel for the State, I am inclined to release the petitioners on anticipatory bail and accordingly, this Court directs that in the event of arrest of the petitioners in connection with the aforesaid case, they shall be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (rupees ten thousand) each with two sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the arresting officer with further conditions that they shall make themselves available for interrogation by the I.O. as and when required and they shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to the Investigating Officer.

Violation of any of the above conditions shall entail cancellation of bail.

The ABLAPL is accordingly disposed of.

Urgent certified copy of this order be granted on proper application.
