

IN THE HIGH COURT OF ORISSA AT CUTTACK

CONTC No.1182 of 2022
(Through hybrid mode)

Balaram Sahoo

....

Applicant

Mr. S.C.Mekap, Advocate

-versus-

MD. Abdul Hai, General Manager
(GAD) Odisha

Alleged Contemner

CORAM: JUSTICE ARINDAM SINHA

ORDER
11.02.2022

Order No.

- 01. 1. Mr. Mekap, learned advocate appears on behalf of applicant and submits, there has been willful and deliberate violation of order dated 12th January, 2022, whereby the bank was directed to consider his client's representation dated 28th December, 2020 seeking renewal of lease agreement on enhancement rent with renovation of premises. The bank, upon communication of the order, issued back dated letter dated 14th December 2021 to avoid clause in the subsisting agreement requiring three months notice for the bank to be able to vacate the premises before expiry of the term. He submits, act of the bank is contemptuous and, therefore, his client has applied.
2. The direction, made ex-parte upon the bank, was for it to consider applicant's representation. It appears the bank has acted. If it has acted in violation of terms of existing agreement or intends to do so, applicant must find remedy from the civil Court.

3. With above observation the contempt application is disposed of.

(Arindam Sinha)
Judge

RKS

