ORDER

23.02.2022

Order No.

01. This matter is taken up through Hybrid arrangement (video conferencing/physical mode).

Learned counsel for the petitioners does not want to press the anticipatory bail application so far as petitioners nos.1, 2 and 3 are concerned.

Accordingly, ABLAPL in respect of petitioners nos.1, 2 and 3 stands disposed of.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and learned counsel for the State.

This is an application under section 438 Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners in connection with G.R. Case No.119 of 2022 arising out of Salepur P.S. Case No.49 of 2022 pending in the Court of learned J.M.F.C., Salipur for alleged commission of offences under sections 294/323/448/354/427/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Perused the first information report annexed to the anticipatory bail application.

Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners that it is a case and counter case and the parties belonged to same locality and due to previous dispute between the parties, the case has been foisted and the offences are triable by Magistrate and on hearing the learned counsel for the State, I am inclined to release the petitioners nos.4 to 15 on anticipatory bail and accordingly, this Court directs that in the event of arrest of the petitioners nos.4 to 15 in connection with the aforesaid case, they shall be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand) each with one surety each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the arresting officer with further conditions that they shall make themselves available for interrogation by the I.O. as and when required and they shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing any facts to the Courts or to the Investigating Officer.

Violation of any of the above conditions shall entail cancellation of bail.

The ABLAPL is accordingly disposed of.

Urgent certified copy of this order be granted on proper application.
