Perused the F.I.R.

Learned counsel for the State submitted that though the accusation has been levelled against the petitioners that they assaulted some of the persons during course of occurrence but none of the persons came forward for their medical examination.

Learned counsel for the petitioners, on the other hand, submitted that it is a case and counter case and during last Gram Panchayat election, the occurrence alleged to have taken place and though the case was registered under section 307 of the Indian Penal Code and other offences but during supervision, offence under section 307 of the Indian Penal code has been deleted and therefore, the anticipatory bail application of the petitioners may be favourably considered.

Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the respective parties, the availability of the criminal antecedents against petitioners nos.2, 8, 9 and 6 namely, Abhaya Behera, Susanta Das and Kiran Samal and Kishor Kumar Das, while not inclining to grant anticipatory bail to them, it is observed that in the event the petitioners nos.2, 6, 8 and 9 surrender in the Court below within a period of four weeks from today and move for bail, the same shall be disposed of as expeditiously as possible by the Courts below in accordance with law. So far as petitioners nos.1, 3, 4, 5 and 7 are concerned, in absence of any criminal antecedents against them and taking into account the nature of accusation against them, I am inclined to release them on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, this Court directs that in the event of arrest of petitioners nos.1, 3, 4, 5 and 7, namely, Manmath Das, Madhusudan Das, Satyajit Subharansu Sethi @ Raja Sethi, Prabhat Kumar Maharana and Jagannath Das in connection with the aforesaid case, they shall be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (rupees ten thousand) each with two sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the arresting officer with further conditions that they shall make themselves available for interrogation by the I.O. as and when
