Order No.

01. This matter is taken up through Hybrid arrangement (video conferencing/physical mode).

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned counsel for the State.

This is an application under section 438, Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners in connection with Plantsite P.S. Case No.15 of 2022 corresponding to G.R. Case No.71 of 2022 pending in the Court of learned S.D.J.M., Rourkela for alleged commission of offences under sections 341, 323, 294, 324, 307, 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Perused the F.I.R. annexed to the anticipatory bail application.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that due to previous dispute between the parties, the case has been foisted and there are no such materials to attract the ingredients of offence under section 307 of the Indian Penal Code and therefore, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners may be favourably considered.

Learned counsel for the State has produced the case diary and submitted that the informant Apu Yadav has sustained simple injury on the left side back.

Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the respective parties, the nature of accusation against the petitioners, the nature of injury sustained by the informant/injured, I am inclined to release the petitioners on anticipatory bail and accordingly, this Court directs that in the event of arrest of the petitioners in connection with the aforesaid case, they shall be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/-(rupees ten thousand) each with two sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the arresting officer with further conditions that they shall make themselves available for interrogation by the I.O. as and when required and they shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing any facts to the Courts or to the Investigating Officer.

Violation of any of the above conditions shall entail cancellation of bail.

The ABLAPL is accordingly disposed of.

Urgent certified copy of this order be granted on proper application.
