Perused the F.I.R.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that in the meantime, the first information report has already been registered as Tusura P.S. Case No.27 dated 17.02.2022 under sections 498-A/323/294/307/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code read with section 4 of the D.P. Act, which was submitted by opposite party no.2 Rimajali Nag. It is further submitted that the petitioner no.1 is the father-in-law, petitioner no.2 is the mother-in-law, petitioner no.3 is the brother-in-law and petitioner no.4 is the sister-in-law of the informant respectively and due to matrimonial dispute between the parties, the case has been instituted and there are no such materials against the petitioners so as to attract the ingredients of the offence under section 307 of the Indian Penal Code and therefore, the anticipatory bail application of the petitioners may be favourably considered. He files the copy of the first information report, which is taken on record.

Learned counsel for the State opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail.

Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the respective parties, the nature of accusation against the petitioners, the relationship between the parties and since the case arises out of a matrimonial dispute, I am inclined to release the petitioners on anticipatory bail and accordingly, this Court directs that in the event of arrest of the petitioners in connection with the aforesaid case, they shall be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (rupees ten thousand) each with two sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the arresting officer with further conditions that they shall make themselves available for interrogation by the I.O. as and when required and they shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to the Investigating Officer.
