Order No.

1

1. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner does not possess any paper for which he is unable to show the dispute redressal mechanism in terms of the agreement between the parties. Learned counsel for the petitioner expresses his inability to produce the relevant document as he has not obtained such copy on the filing of the writ petition. As the writ petition is defective, petitioner is permitted to withdraw the same. If so advised, petitioner may file a better application enclosing all documents.
