Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and learned counsel for the State.

This is an application under section 438 Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners in connection with Khallikote P.S. Case No.44 of 2022 corresponding to G.R. Case No. 97 of 2022 pending in the Court of learned J.M.F.C., Khallikote for commission of alleged offences under sections 452, 294, 323, 307, 354B, 435, 506, 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the State on instruction submitted that three persons, namely, Surekha

Pradhan, Kuni Pradhan and Anadi Pradhan were sent for medical examination on police requisition and it was found that Kuni Pradhan has sustained no external injury and Anandi Pradhan and Surekha Pradhan have sustained simple injuries and the injury sustained by Surekha is on the forehead.

Considering the submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioners that the ingredients of the offence under section 307 of the Indian Penal Code are not attracted and petitioner no.1 is a lady and keeping in view the proviso to section 437(1) of Cr.P.C, I am inclined to release the petitioners on anticipatory bail and accordingly, this Court directs that in the event of arrest of the petitioners in connection with the aforesaid case, they shall be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (rupees ten thousand) each with two sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the arresting officer with further conditions that they shall make themselves available for interrogation by the I.O. as and when required and they shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing any facts to the Courts or to the Investigating Officer.

Violation of any of the above conditions shall entail cancellation of bail.

The ABLAPL is accordingly disposed of.
