Mr. Yuvraj Parekh, Advocate

Vs.

Opposite parties

CORAM:

DR. JUSTICE B.R. SARANGI

MISS JUSTICE SAVITRI RATHO

ORDER

17.03.2022

Order No.

01.

This matter is taken up through hybrid mode.

2. Heard Mr. Y. Parekh, learned counsel for the petitioners.
3. The petitioners have filed this writ petition seeking to quash the termination of contract, vide impugned letter dated 28.02.2022 issued by the opposite party no.2 at Annexure-1, with effect from 28.02.2022.
4. Since the petitioners are aggrieved by the termination of contract itself, they should have approached the appropriate forum, instead of approaching this Court to adjudicate the same under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. This Court, in exercise of the power of judicial review, cannot examine whether the termination is good or bad and if at all the termination is bad the compensation is to be awarded or not.
5. In view of the above, this Court is not inclined to entertain the writ petition. However, the petitioners are at liberty to approach the appropriate forum for redressal of their grievance, if any.
