Order No.

01.

This matter is taken up through Hybrid arrangement (video conferencing/physical mode).

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and learned counsel for the State.

This is an application under section 438 Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners in connection with Nalco Township P.S. Case No.55 of 2022 corresponding to G.R. Case No. 233 of 2022 pending in the Court of learned J.M.F.C., Banarpal for commission of alleged offences under sections 341, 323, 325, 307, 506, 354/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Perused the F.I.R. annexed to the anticipatory bail application.

Learned counsel for the State has produced the injury reports of two injured, namely, the informant Sumati Pradhan and her husband Bhabagrahi Jena, which indicates that they have sustained simple injuries.

Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners that there is background of civil dispute between the parties and there are no such materials to attract the ingredients of the offence under section 307 of the Indian Penal Code and taking into account the nature of injuries sustained by the injured persons and on hearing the learned counsel for the State, I am inclined to release the petitioners on anticipatory bail and accordingly, this Court directs that in the event of arrest of the petitioners in connection with the aforesaid case, they shall be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/-(rupees ten thousand) each with two sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the arresting officer with further conditions that they shall make themselves available for interrogation by the I.O. as and when required and they shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing any facts to the Courts or to the Investigating Officer.

Violation of any of the above conditions shall entail cancellation of bail.

The ABLAPL is accordingly disposed of.

Issue urgent certified copy as per Rules.
