Learned counsel for the petitioners has produced the injury reports of three injured persons, namely, Santosh Kumar Rout, Ambika Rout and Puspanjali Rout and it indicates that the injured Santosh Rout has sustained five simple injuries, the injured Puspanjali Rout has not sustained any external injury whereas the injured Ambika Rout has sustained simple abrasions. The injury reports filed by the learned counsel for the State are taken on record.

Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners that due to previous dispute between the parties, the case has been foisted and it is a case and counter case and there are no such materials to attract the ingredients of the offence under section 307 of the Indian Penal Code and taking into account the nature of injuries sustained by the injured persons and on hearing the learned counsel for the State, I am inclined to release the petitioners on anticipatory bail and accordingly, this Court directs that in the event of arrest of the petitioners in connection with the aforesaid case, they shall be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/-(rupees ten thousand) each with two sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the arresting officer with further conditions that they shall make themselves available for interrogation by the I.O. as and when required and they shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing any facts to the Courts or to the Investigating Officer.
