ORDER
12.05.2022

Order No.

02. This matter is taken up through Hybrid arrangement (video conferencing/physical mode).

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned counsel for the State.

This is an application under section 438 Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners in connection with Banpur P.S. Case No.41 of 2022 corresponding to G.R. Case No.36 of 2022 pending in the Court of learned J.M.F.C., Banpur for alleged commission of offences under sections 147/148/341/294/354/323/325/307/379/506/149 of the Indian Penal Code.

Perused the first information report annexed to the anticipatory bail application.

Learned counsel for the State on instruction submitted that there is only one injured in this case, namely, Nishamani Tarei and she has sustained simple injury and there are no criminal antecedents against any of the petitioners

Considering the submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioners that there are no such materials so as to attract the ingredients of the offence under section 307 of the Indian Penal Code and that the injured has sustained simple injury and taking into account the nature of accusations against the petitioners and on hearing the learned counsel for the State, I am inclined to release the petitioners on anticipatory bail and accordingly, this Court directs that in the event of arrest of the petitioners in connection with the aforesaid case, they shall be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (rupees ten thousand) each with two sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the arresting officer with further conditions that they shall make themselves available for interrogation by the I.O. as and when required and they shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to the Investigating Officer.

Violation of any of the above conditions shall entail cancellation of bail.

The ABLAPL is accordingly disposed of.

Urgent certified copy of this order be granted on proper application.
