

IN THE HIGH COURT OF ORISSA AT CUTTACK

W.A. No.310 of 2016

Sanjulata Panda

....

Appellant

Mr. B. Satapathy, Advocate

-versus-

State of Odisha and others

....

Respondents

Mr. Ishwar Mohanty, ASC

CORAM:

THE CHIEF JUSTICE

JUSTICE CHITTARANJAN DASH

ORDER

10.10.2022

Order No.

05.

1. The grievance before the learned Single Judge was that certain areas are to have been included in the Anganwadi Center of Godipokhari in which the Appellant was seeking appointment as Anganwadi Worker (AWW).
2. Reliance has placed on a letter dated 5th August, 2015 written by the Child Development Project Officer (CDPO), Dhamnagar to the Additional District Magistrate, Bhadrak in this respect.
3. As rightly pointed out by the learned Single Judge, the said letter of the CDPO is not binding on the ADM. In any event, how many areas should be included within the Anganwadi Center is clearly a policy decision with which the learned Single Judge could not have interfered with. Consequently, the Court is not inclined to interfere with the impugned order of the learned Single Judge. The writ appeal is dismissed.
