ORDER

29.06.2022

Order No.

01.

1. On his own submission of Mr. Balakrishna, learned counsel for the Petitioners, the Petitioners are yet to put up the application for intervention in the proceeding vide Annexure-3.

2. Considering the above submission of Mr. Balakrishna, learned counsel for the Petitioners, this Court finds, there is no scope of hearing the Petitioners involving the application U/s.144 of Cr.P.C. It is, however, directed that in the event the proceeding vide Annexure-3 is still pending and in the event the Petitioners are so advised and feel to be aggrieved in the finality of the proceeding U/s.144 of Cr.P.C, they may put up an application before the competent authority for giving them opportunity of hearing in the proceeding U/s.144 of Cr.P.C. Petitioners will file application for intervention and opportunity of hearing within a period of ten days hence.

3. The writ petition stands disposed of with the above direction.
