CORAM:

MR. JUSTICE D.DASH

ORDER

16.03.2022

Order No.

23. 1. This matter is taken up by Hybrid Arrangement (Virtual/ Physical) mode.
2. The record is called for on a mention being made by Mr.P.K. Rath, learned counsel who had argued in RSA No.89 of 2007 on behalf of the Appellant.

It is submitted by Mr.Rath, that this Court, by judgment dated 03.03.2022, has disposed of the said Appeal wherein the hearing had been closed on that day. Inviting the attention of the Court to the relevant paragraphs wherein this Court has addressed the rival contentions in answering the substantial questions of law, he submits that at paragraph-14, which is the last paragraph of the judgment, an inadvertent typographical error has crept in which is contrary to the conclusions as have been arrived at in the foregoing paragraphs. He therefore, submits for correction of the said inadvertent typographical error appearing in the last paragraph of the judgment i.e. at paragraph-14 in consonance with the answers given to the substantial questions of law.

His prayer in sum and substance is that the word “dismissed” appearing at the first sentence of paragraph-14 of judgment dated 03.03.2022 passed in RSA No.89 of 2007 be replaced by the word “allowed”.

3. Keeping in view the submission made, the judgment passed by this Court on 03.03.2022 being given a careful reading, this Court finds all the reasons to accept with the submission of Mr.Rath, learned counsel for the Appellant. Accordingly, the word “dismissed” appearing in the first sentence of paragraph-14 of the judgment is hereby corrected as “allowed”.

The correction is accordingly carried out in the original judgment. The parties who have received the certified copies be accordingly informed with true copy of this order.

(D. Dash),
Judge.
