Order No.

01. This matter is taken up through Hybrid arrangement (video conferencing/physical mode).

Mr. Gyanaloka Mohanty, learned counsel files vakalatnama on behalf of the informant, which is taken on record.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned counsel for the informant and learned counsel for the State.

This is an application under section 438 Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in connection with Tangi P.S. Case No.245 of 2022 corresponding to G.R. Case No.261 of 2022 pending in the Court of learned N.G.N. -cum- J.M.F.C., Tangi for alleged commission of offences under sections 341/294/507/509/506 of the Indian Penal Code.

Perused the F.I.R.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the offences are triable by Magistrate and the only non-bailable offence is under section 506 of the Indian Penal Code and therefore, the anticipatory bail application of the petitioner may be favourably considered.

Learned counsel for the informant, on the other hand, submitted that repeatedly the petitioner is harassing the daughter of the informant.

Learned counsel for the State also opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail.

Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the respective parties, the nature of accusation against the petitioner and the fact that the offences are triable by Magistrate and the only non-bailable offence is under section 506 of the Indian Penal Code, I am inclined to release the petitioner on anticipatory bail and accordingly, this Court directs that in the event of arrest of the petitioner in connection with the aforesaid case, he shall be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (rupees ten thousand) with two sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the arresting officer with further conditions that he shall make himself available for interrogation by the I.O. as and when required and he shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to the Investigating Officer with further conditions that the petitioner shall not try to come in contact either with the victim or her family members, shall not indulge in any criminal activities or tamper with the evidence.

Violation of any of the above conditions shall entail cancellation of bail.

The ABLAPL is accordingly disposed of.

Urgent certified copy of this order be granted on proper application.
