....

Opposite Party

Mr. P.C. Das, A.S.C.

CORAM:

JUSTICE A.K.MOHAPATRA

ORDER

19.07.2022

Order No.

01. 1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid Arrangement (Virtual /Physical Mode).
2. On the verbal request, learned counsel for the Petitioner is permitted to make necessary corrections in the cause-title of the bail application in court today, so far as the name of the court is concerned.
3. Heard learned counsel for the Petitioner and learned Addl. Standing Counsel for the State.
4. This is an application under Section 438, Cr.P.C. filed by the Petitioner for anticipatory bail, involving offences punishable under Sections 342/384/506/34, I.P.C.
5. Considering the nature of allegation, gravity of the offence and the facts of the case, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the Petitioner. However, it is observed that, in the event the Petitioner surrenders before the learned S.D.J.M., Rourkela in G.R.

Case No.1262 of 1995 corresponding to Plantsite P.S. Case No.222 of 1995 within a period of three weeks from today, the Petitioner shall be released on bail on such terms and conditions as the learned Magistrate may deem just and proper, subject to further conditions that – the Petitioner shall not threaten, influence or terrorize the prosecution witnesses including the informant in any manner whatsoever and he shall cooperate in the trial by regularly attending the learned court in seisin over the matter on each and every date fixed for trial. Violation of any of the conditions shall entail cancelation of bail and the learned trial court may take any coercive action against the Petitioner, as per law, for violation of the conditions of bail.

6. The ABLAPL is disposed of accordingly.
7. Urgent certified copy of this order be granted as per rules.
