ORDER
06.07.2022

Order No.

01.

1. Undisputedly the original land owner has died in the meantime. It is alleged that though the legal heirs extends the land revenue in respect of the Khata No.211/325 of Mouza-Pithabhuin, the Tahasildar declines to accept the land revenue.
2. Considering the above allegation and further keeping in view that the writ petition is moved by one of the legal heirs, this Court is of the opinion that in the event the land records still stands in the name of the mother, there is no prohibition in accepting the land revenue in respect of the Khata No.211/325 of Mouza-Pithabhuin involved herein.
3. The writ petition stands disposed of with the above observation.
