Order No.

- 01.
1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State. None appears for opposite party No.2.
 2. The instant petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed by the petitioner challenging the order dated 18th June, 2022, passed by the learned J.M.F.C., Khurda in ICC Case No.215 of 2018 for having issued the non-bailable warrant of arrest against the petitioner, on the grounds stated therein.
 3. Perused the impugned order under Annexure-1, whereby learned court below issued the order of NBW against the petitioner due to his default which is absolutely justified and therefore, calls for no interference. However, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was on bail but due to recent default, the order has been passed.
