Order No.

- 01.
1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid Arrangement (Virtual /Physical Mode).
 2. Heard learned counsel for the Petitioners and the learned Additional Standing Counsel. Perused the records.
 3. This is an application under Section 438 Cr.P.C. filed by the Petitioners for anticipatory bail.
 4. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the Petitioners that the Petitioner No.1 is the husband and Petitioner No.2 is the mother-in-law of the informant. It is submitted that the Petitioners are staying in Delhi. From the documents on record, it is crystal clear that the prosecution allegations are false, fabricated and afterthought only intent to harass the in-laws.
 5. Considering the nature of allegations made, gravity of the offence and the fact of the case, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the Petitioners. However, it is directed that in the event the Petitioners surrender before the learned S.D.J.M., Balasore in C.T.Case No.299 of 2022 arising out of Balasore Industrial Area P.S.Case No.63 of 2022 within a period of three weeks from today and move for bail, they shall be released on bail on such terms and conditions as would be deemed just and proper by the learned Magistrate with further condition that the Petitioner while on bail shall not threaten, influence, terrorise or harass the informant and her family members in any manner whatsoever. It is also directed that the Petitioners shall also look after the well being of the informant and shall provide maintenance to the informant so long as the matrimonial dispute subsists.

6. Accordingly, the ABLAPL is disposed of.
7. Issue urgent certified copy of this order as per Rules.
