2. Heard learned counsel for the Petitioner and learned Addl. Standing Counsel for the State.
3. This is an application under Section 438, Cr.P.C. filed by the Petitioner for anticipatory bail, involving offence punishable under Sections 420/467/468/471/34, I.P.C.
4. Learned counsel for the Petitioner submits that the Petitioner is alleged to have abused the Power of Attorney of the Informant and accordingly submitted the same before the Revenue Authority for disbursal of the compensation amount. He further submits that no such amount has been disbursed till now and the Petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case.
5. Learned counsel for the State on the other hand submits that although some documents have been submitted claiming the share of the compensation amount, however, no such amount has been disbursed in favour of the petitioner.

6. Considering such submission, seriousness of the allegation, gravity of the offence and the facts of the case, although I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the Petitioner, however it is observed that, in the event the Petitioner surrenders and moves for bail before the learned S.D.J.M., Nuapada in C.T. Case No.454 of 2022 corresponding to Jonk P.S. Case No.176 of 2022 within a period of three weeks from today, he shall be released on bail on such terms and conditions as the learned Magistrate may deem just and proper in the facts and circumstances of the case.

However, while imposing conditions for bail, learned Magistrate shall also impose the following additional conditions –
