4. It is submitted by learned counsel for the Petitioner that the petitioner has not been named in the F.I.R., but on the basis of the statement of the co-accused, the Petitioner has been implicated in the present. He further submits that the co-accused persons standing in similar footing with the present Petitioner have already been released on bail.

5. Considering the seriousness of the allegation, gravity of the offence and the facts of the case, though I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the Petitioner, however the Petitioner is given liberty to surrender before the learned J.M.F.C., Jatni in G.R. In such event, the learned Magistrate shall consider the bail application of the Petitioner in the first hour of the day, strictly on the basis of the materials available on record. In case of rejection of the bail application by the learned Magistrate, the Petitioner may move for bail before the higher forum in the second hour of the same day. In that event, the higher forum shall consider and dispose of the bail application of the Petitioner on the same day on merit, strictly on the basis of the materials available on record. Case Diary be made available to the learned courts below as soon as possible to facilitate in disposing of the bail application of the Petitioner on the same day itself.
