given lift to one Damodar Naik of Sunamagar, who was transporting the said contraband articles and Petitioner had no knowledge about such fact. As Petitioner is a law abiding citizen and permanent resident of the locality, there is no chance of absconding or avoiding the process of law. The further submission is that Petitioner has no criminal antecedents of similar nature.

5. Learned counsel for the State vehemently objects the prayer for bail of the Petitioner. It is stated that a quantity of 22 Kgs. of contraband Ganja were recovered from the present Petitioner. He further submits that no leniency should be shown in view of the fact that such type of offences are increasing day by day in the State. However, he submits in the event of release, stringent conditions may be imposed on the Petitioner.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties, considering the nature and gravity of offences alleged and the period of detention of the Petitioner, this Court is inclined to release the Petitioner on bail on furnishing a bail bond of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty thousand) with one local surety for the like amount to the satisfaction of the learned court in seisin of the matter subject to the following conditions :

(iii) He shall not tamper with the prosecution evidence;

(iv) He shall not influence or threaten any prosecution evidence and cooperate in the investigation; and

7. Petitioner is also directed to appear before the local police station at an interval of every fifteen days between 11.00 A.M. to 1.00 P.M. on a working day once he comes out of the jail custody. It is further directed that the court in seisin of the matter to verify the criminal antecedents of the Petitioner and impose any additional condition(s), if situation so warrants. This order shall remain valid in the event the court in seisin of the matter is satisfied that Petitioner has no criminal antecedents.

8. With the above direction, the BLAPL is accordingly allowed.
