WPC (OA) No. 1431 of 2017

Srikanta Kumar Barik

.....

Petitioner

Mr. N. Rath, Advocate

Vs.

State of Odisha and others

.....

Opposite Parties

Mr. S. Rath, ASC

CORAM:

DR. JUSTICE B.R. SARANGI

ORDER

29.08.2022

Order No.

01.

This matter is taken up through hybrid mode.

2. Heard Mr. N. Rath, learned Counsel appearing for the Petitioner and Mr. S. Rath, learned Additional Standing Counsel appearing for the State.

3. The Petitioner has filed this Writ Petition seeking to quash the Memorandum of Charge under Annexure-2 dated 16.04.2013 and further seeks for direction to the Opposite Parties to regularize the period of suspension of the Petitioner as duty pay and also sanction the increments with effect from 2013 onwards within a stipulated time.

4. Learned Counsel appearing for the Petitioner contended though a Departmental Proceeding was started against the Petitioner, but for the self same charges, a G.R. Case is also continuing bearing G.R Case No. 47 of 2015 before the learned JMFC Nimapara. That itself cannot be a ground not to conclude the proceeding departmentally which was initiated against him, depriving the petitioner to get the benefits as due and admissible in accordance with law.

5. Learned Additional Standing Counsel appearing for the State contended that since G.R. Case No. 47 of 2015 is pending before the learned JMFC, Nimapara, therefore, the Departmental Proceeding which was initiated against the Petitioner is being awaited for disposal of such Criminal Case and as such, in the event the Petitioner is convicted in the Criminal Case, he may not get the benefit as claimed in the Writ Petition.

6. Having heard learned Counsel for the parties and after going through the record, it appears that the Petitioner has been visited with a Departmental Proceeding by framing the charge under Annexure-2. He has also been facing the Criminal Case bearing G.R. Case No. 47 of 2015, which is pending before the learned JMFC, Nimapara. In the Counter Affidavit it has been stated that since there is a financial loss to the government, then a criminal prosecution will be of no help, as the remedy can be obtained only through a Departmental proceeding or a civil suit. In such a case it may be permissible to run the Departmental Proceeding concurrently with the criminal case provided that if there be any action, which may or is likely to cause embarrassment to the accused and tends to prejudice the fair and impartial trial of the criminal case the Departmental Proceeding will have to be stayed. As the GR case is subjudice, the Departmental Proceeding will be finalized after final judgment of the Court.

7. Since the nature of proof in both the cases are totally different, in that case, the pendency of the Criminal Case cannot stand as a bar to conclude the Departmental Proceeding. This Court in W.P.(C) No. 35773 of 2021 disposed of on 22.11.2022 observed as follows:-

“Considering the submission that during pendency of the criminal trial, filing of defence by the petitioner in the disciplinary proceeding will jeopardize the prospect of the delinquent petitioner involving the criminal case, this Court finds support of the submission of learned counsel and also the support of decision of the Hon’ble apex Court reported in AIR 1999 SC 1416, decided taking support of the old decision of the Hon’ble apex Court reported in AIR 1965 SC 155. This Court accordingly disposes of the writ petition directing stay of the Disciplinary Proceeding vide C.P. H.Q Proceeding No. 02 of 2016 under Annexure-2 involving the petitioner till finalization of the Criminal Trial vide Bhubaneswar Vigilance P.S. Case No.06 of 2016 pending in the court of Special Judge, Vigilance, Order No. 1 Page 2 of 2 Bhubaneswar. This Court also directs the trial involving Bhubaneswar Vigilance Case No. 06 of 2016 be expedited.

8. In view of the above, this Court disposes of the Writ Petition directing for stay of the Departmental Proceeding initiated under Annexure-2 till finalization of the Criminal Case initiated vide G.R. Case No. 47 of 2015, pending before the learned JMFC, Nimapara. This Court also directs that the G.R. case be expedited and finalized.

Issue urgent certified copy as per rules.
