iv) To pass any other orders deemed suitable and proper by the Hon’ble Tribunal to provide complete relief to the applicant and to meet ends of justice equity and fairness.”

2. Mr. R.N. Acharaya, Standing Counsel for the School and Mass Education vehemently objected for grant of relief as prayed for. He urged that the Petitioner has claimed for re-fixation of the pay till his retirement on 31st January, 1996 which is hopelessly barred by limitation as the Petitioner has come up in the year 2013.

3. On 28th February, 2022 none appeared for the Petitioner. Today also none appeared on behalf of the petitioner. Therefore, it is construed that the Petitioner is not interested to pursue the matter any further.

4. Accordingly, the writ petition stands dismissed.
