ORDER

Order No.

01. 1. This matter is taken up by hybrid mode.
2. A memo of appearance filed by Mr.H.S.Mishra in Court to conduct the case on behalf of the petitioner be kept on record.
3. It appears that the bail application of the petitioner was earlier rejected vide order dated 13.08.2021 in BLAPL 9432 of 2020 with an observation regarding completion of trial as expeditiously as possible.
4. On perusal of the rejection order of the court below it reveals that out of sixteen witnesses only five witnesses have been examined. The victim has not been examined. Moreover, the victim has become pregnant. Eleven witnesses are to be examined including the victim.
5. Therefore, keeping in view the gravity of the alleged offences and the fact of non-examination of other vital witnesses including the victim, I am not inclined to allow the bail application.

6. The BLAPL is accordingly dismissed.

7. However, since it is prayed for expedite of trial, the trial court is directed to conclude the trial preferably within a period of three months. In case the trial of the case is not concluded, the petitioner is at liberty to move bail application afresh before this Court.
